Dhaka Chamber of Commerce & Industry (DCCI)

The Voice of Confidence and Credence in Bangladeshi Business Arena

Dhaka Chamber of Commerce & Industry (DCCI) incorporated under Companies Act, in 1958, is the largest and most vibrant Chamber of the country. It has been a pioneer Trade Body/rendering services for the development of private sector; in Bangladesh for over five decades. DCCI represents more than 38 categories of small, medium and large entrepreneurs contributing towards creation of wealth and employment.

DCCI is running with a Board of twenty four Directors headed by a President, supported by a Senior Vice President and a Vice President. One third of the Directors are elected every year for the term of three years.

DCCI, as an interactive platform, aims at creating an enabling environment for Bangladeshi business and promoting trade, investment and industrialization in the country.

DCCI comprises of persons, firms, companies, corporate bodies engaged in trade, commerce, industry, agriculture and manufacturing etc. Since its establishment in 1958 the Chamber has grown rapidly and today it represents more than 5000 members which include large, medium and small companies and firms. About 70% of its members are from small and medium groups while 30% are from large sector. It also functions as a forum for exchanging views on trade and economy among different Chambers, Ministries, Government Agencies, Local or Foreign Business Delegations etc.
